1. The persons in charge of the resettlement program into which THROWOFF/3 has been placed have little confidence that the letter enclosed in reference 1 will placate him. They feel that the letter is not as firm as it might be and that it did not support what they had told him with regard to paragraphs 1 and 2 of the second reference. The letter has been forwarded to THROWOFF/3 despite these doubts.

2. You are requested to have ☐ prepare a second letter in his own handwriting conveying to THROWOFF/3 the facts contained in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the second reference and pointing out that the Greeks will not allow him to return to Greece. These statements are what THROWOFF/3 has said that he wants from ☐ since he does not believe them when they are given to him orally and insists that he is being railroaded.

3. You are requested to please send the second letter more expeditiously than the last since THROWOFF/3's dissatisfaction is contagious and the entire resettlement project is being jeopardized by his recalcitrance. There is the possibility that nothing that you say or write will satisfy him and that another method of disposal will have to be sought, but until that is proven we must support the resettlement program in every way possible in their effort to make these arrangements work.
